The Most Authenticated Book of Hadith

Muhammad Ibn Ismail al-Bukhari popularly known as Imam Bukhari, (810-870AD), was a Sunni Islamic scholar. He authored the Hadith collection named Sahih Bukhari, a collection which Sunni Muslims regard as the most authentic of all Hadith compilations. Bukhari wrote three works discussing narrators of Hadith with respect to their ability in conveying their material: the "brief compendium of Hadith narrators," "the medium compendium" and the "large compendium". ## The invocation of the person who is dutiful to his parents if fulfilled

Hadith # 5974

Narrated Ibn `Umar:

Allah's Messenger (pbuh) said,

"While three persons were traveling, they were overtaken by rain and they took shelter in a cave in a mountain. A big rock fell from the mountain over the mouth of the cave and blocked it. They said to each other. 'Think of such good (righteous) deeds which, you did for Allah's sake only, and invoke Allah by giving reference to those deeds so that Allah may relieve you from your difficulty.

one of them said, 'O Allah! I had my parents who were very old and I had small children for whose sake I used to work as a shepherd. When I returned to them at night and milked (the sheep), I used to start giving the milk to my parents first before giving to my children. And one day I went far away in search of a grazing place (for my sheep), and didn't return home till late at night and found that my parents had slept. I milked (my livestock) as usual and brought the milk vessel and stood at their heads, and I disliked to wake them up from their sleep, and I also disliked to give the milk to my children before my parents though my children were crying (from hunger) at my feet. So this state of mine and theirs continued till the day dawned. (O Allah!) If you considered that I had done that only for seeking Your pleasure, then please let there be an opening through which we can see the sky.' So Allah made for them an opening through which they could see the sky.

Then the second person said, 'O Allah! I had a she-cousin whom I loved as much as a passionate man love a woman. I tried to seduce her but she refused till I paid her one-hundred Dinars So I worked hard till I collected one hundred Dinars and went to her with that But when I sat in between her legs (to have sexual intercourse with her), she said, 'O Allah's slave! Be afraid of Allah ! Do not deflower me except legally (by marriage contract). So I left her O Allah! If you considered that I had done that only for seeking Your pleasure then please let the rock move a little to have a (wider) opening.' So Allah shifted that rock to make the opening wider for them.

And the last (third) person said 'O Allah ! I employed a laborer for wages equal to a Faraq (a certain measure: of rice, and when he had finished his job he demanded his wages, but when I presented his due to him, he gave it up and refused to take it.

Then I kept on sowing that rice for him (several times) till managed to buy with the price of the yield, some cows and their shepherd Later on the laborer came to me and said. '(O Allah's slave!) Be afraid o Allah, and do not be unjust to me and give me my due.' I said (to him). 'Go and take those cows and their shepherd. So he took them and went away. (So, O Allah!) If You considered that I had done that for seeking Your pleasure, then please remove the remaining part of the rock.'

And so Allah released them (from their difficulty).

She said (to the Prophet), "Haven't you heard what they (Jews) have said?"

When that person had left, 'Aisha said (to the Prophet). "O Allah's Apostle! When you saw that man, you said so-and-so about him, then you showed him a kind and polite behavior, and you enjoyed his company?"

Allah's Messenger (pbuh) said,

A man among his companions, seeing him wearing it, said, "O Allah's Apostle! Please give it to me to wear." The Prophet (pbuh) said, "Yes." and gave him that sheet.

When the Prophet left, the man was blamed by his companions who said, "It was not nice on your part to ask the Prophet for it while you know that he took it because he was in need of it, and you also know that he (the Prophet) never turns down anybody's request that he might be asked for."

And do you know which month is this month?" They (the People) replied, "Allah and His Apostle know better." He said, "This is the Sacred (forbidden) month." He added, Allah has made your blood, your properties and your honor Sacred to one another (i.e. Muslims) like the sanctity of this day of yours in this month of yours, in this town of yours."

- And if somebody commits suicide with anything in this world, he will be tortured with that very thing on the Day of Resurrection;

- And if somebody curses a believer, then his sin will be as if he murdered him;

- And whoever accuses a believer of Kufr (disbelief), then it is as if he killed him."

for you.

So look for it in the ninth, the seventh, or the fifth (of the last ten days of Ramadan)."

Hadith # 6050

Abu Dhar said, "There was a quarrel between me and another man whose mother was a non-Arab and I called her bad names. The man mentioned (complained about) me to the Prophet." The Prophet (pbuh) said, "Did you abuse so-and-so?" I said, "Yes"

He said, "Did you call his mother bad names?" I said, "Yes".

He said, "You still have the traits of (the Pre-Islamic period of) ignorance."

I said, "(Do I still have ignorance) even now in my old age?"

He said,

"Yes, they (slaves or servants) are your brothers, and Allah has put them under your command.

- So the one under whose hand Allah has put his brother, should feed him of what he eats,

- and give him dresses of what he wears,

- and should not ask him to do a thing beyond his capacity.

- And if at all he asks him to do a hard task, he should help him therein."

whom the Prophet (pbuh) used to call Dhul-Yadain (the long armed).

He said, "O Allah's Prophet! Have you forgotten or has the prayer been shortened?"

The Prophet (pbuh) said, "Neither have I forgotten, nor has it been shortened."

They (the people) said, "Surely, you have forgotten, O Allah's Messenger (pbuh)!"

The Prophet (pbuh) said, Dhul-Yadain has told the truth." So the Prophet (pbuh) got up and offered other two rak`at and finished his prayer with Taslim.

Then he said Takbir, performed a prostration of ordinary duration or longer, then he raised his head and said Takbir and performed another prostration of ordinary duration or longer and then raised his head and said Takbir (i.e. he performed the two prostrations of Sahu, i.e., forgetfulness).

Hadith # 6052

Allah's Messenger (pbuh) passed by two graves and said, "Both of them (persons in the grave) are being tortured, and they are not being tortured for a major sin. This one used not to save himself from being soiled with his urine, and the other used to go about with calumnies (among the people to rouse hostilities, e.g., one goes to a person and tells him that so-and-so says about him such-and-such evil things).

And when that person left I said, "O Allah's Messenger (pbuh)! You had said what you had said, yet you spoke to him in a very polite manner?"

The Prophet (pbuh) said,

"O `Aisha! The worst people are those whom the people desert or leave in order to save themselves from their dirty language or from their transgression."

Then the Prophet asked for a green palm tree leaf and split it into two pieces and placed one piece on each grave, saying, "I hope that their punishment may be abated as long as these pieces of the leaf are not dried."

إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَأْمُرُ بِالْعَدْلِ وَالْإِحْسَانِ وَإِيتَايَ ذِي الْقُرْبَىٰ

The one near my feet, asked the one near my head (pointing at me), 'What is wrong with this man? The latter replied, 'He is under the effect of magic.'

The first one asked, 'Who had worked magic on him?' The other replied, 'Lubaid bin Asam.'

The first one asked, 'What material (did he use)?' The other replied, 'The skin of the pollen of a male date tree with a comb and the hair stuck to it, kept under a stone in the well of Dharwan.'"

Then the Prophet (pbuh) went to that well and said, "This is the same well which was shown to me in the dream. The tops of its date-palm trees look like the heads of the devils, and its water looks like the Henna infusion." Then the Prophet (pbuh) ordered that those things be taken out.

I said, "O Allah's Messenger (pbuh)! Won't you disclose (the magic object)?"

The Prophet (pbuh) said, "Allah has cured me and I hate to circulate the evil among the people."

Narrated Abu Huraira:

I heard Allah's Messenger (pbuh) saying.

"All the sins of my followers will be forgiven except those of the Mujahirin (those who commit a sin openly or disclose their sins to the people).

An example of such disclosure is that a person commits a sin at night and though Allah screens it from the public, then he comes in the morning, and says, 'O so-and-so, I did such-and-such (evil) deed yesterday,' though he spent his night screened by his Lord (none knowing about his sin) and in the morning he removes Allah's screen from himself."

Hadith # 6070

Narrated Safwan bin Muhriz:

A man asked Ibn `Umar, "What did you hear Allah's Messenger (pbuh) saying regarding An-Najwa (secret talk between Allah and His believing worshipper on the Day of Judgment)?"

He informed, "The Prophet (pbuh) said,

"One of you will come close to his Lord till He will shelter him in His screen and say: Did you commit such-and-such sin? He will say, 'Yes.'

Then Allah will say: Did you commit such and such sin? He will say, 'Yes.'

So Allah will make him confess (all his sins) and He will say, 'I screened them (your sins) for you in the world, and today I forgive them for you.'"

Pride and arrogance

Hadith # 6071

Narrated Haritha bin Wahb Al-Khuzai:

The Prophet (pbuh) said, "Shall I inform you about the people of Paradise?"

They comprise every obscure unimportant humble person, and if he takes Allah's Oath that he will do that thing, Allah will fulfill his oath (by doing that).

Shall I inform you about the people of the Fire?"

They comprise every cruel, violent, proud and conceited person."

Hadith # 6072

Anas bin Malik said,

"Any of the female slaves of Medina could take hold of the hand of Allah's Messenger (pbuh) and take him wherever she wished."

Al-Hijra (Abandonment)

Hadith # 6073-6075

Narrated `Aisha:

That she was told that `Abdullah bin Az-Zubair (on hearing that she was selling or giving something as a gift) said, "By Allah, if `Aisha does not give up this, I will declare her incompetent to dispose of her wealth."

I said, "Did he (`Abdullah bin Az-Zubair) say so?" They (people) said, "Yes."

`Aisha said, "I vow to Allah that I will never speak to Ibn Az-Zubair."

When this desertion lasted long, `Abdullah bin Az-Zubair sought intercession with her, but she said, "By Allah, I will not accept the intercession of anyone for him, and will not commit a sin by breaking my vow."

When this state of affairs was prolonged on Ibn Az-Zubair (he felt it hard on him), he said to Al- Miswar bin Makhrama and `Abdur-Rahman bin Al-Aswad bin 'Abu Yaghuth, who were from the tribe of Bani Zahra, "I beseech you, by Allah, to let me enter upon `Aisha, for it is unlawful for her to vow to cut the relation with me."

So Al-Miswar and `Abdur-Rahman, wrapping their sheets around themselves, asked `Aisha's permission saying, "Peace and Allah's Mercy and Blessings be upon you! Shall we come in?" `Aisha said, "Come in." They said, "All of us?" She said, "Yes, come in all of you," not knowing that Ibn Az- Zubair was also with them. So when they entered, Ibn Az-Zubair entered the screened place and got hold of `Aisha and started requesting her to excuse him, and wept.

Al-Miswar and `Abdur Rahman also started requesting her to speak to him and to accept his repentance. They said (to her),

"The Prophet \(pbuh\) forbade what you know of deserting \(not speaking to your Muslim Brethren\), for it is unlawful for any Muslim not to talk to his brother for more than three nights \(days\)."

So when they increased their reminding her (of the superiority of having good relation with Kith and kin, and of excusing others' sins), and brought her down to a critical situation, she started reminding them, and wept, saying, "I have made a vow, and (the question of) vow is a difficult one."

They (Al-Miswar and `Abdur-Rahman) persisted in their appeal till she spoke with `Abdullah bin Az- Zubair and she manumitted forty slaves as an expiation for her vow.

Later on, whenever she remembered her vow, she used to weep so much that her veil used to become wet with her tears.

Hadith # 6076

When it was night, Abu Ad-Darda' got up (for the night prayer). Salman said (to him), "Sleep," and he slept.

Anger and impatience before a guest

Abu Bakr invited a group of people and told me, "Look after your guests."

Abu Bakr added, I am going to visit the Prophet (pbuh) and you should finish serving them before I return."

`Abdur-Rahman said, "So I went at once and served them with what was available at that time in the house and requested them to eat."

They said, "Where is the owner of the house (i.e., Abu Bakr)?" `Abdur-Rahman said, "Take your meal." They said, "We will not eat till the owner of the house comes."

`Abdur-Rahman said, "Accept your meal from us, for if my father comes and finds you not having taken your meal yet, we will be blamed severely by him, but they refused to take their meals. So I was sure that my father would be angry with me.

When he came, I went away (to hide myself) from him. He asked, "What have you done (about the guests)?" They informed him the whole story. Abu Bakr called, "O `Abdur Rahman!" I kept quiet. He then called again. "O `Abdur-Rahman!" I kept quiet and he called again, "O ignorant (boy)! I beseech you by Allah, if you hear my voice, then come out!"

I came out and said, "Please ask your guests (and do not be angry with me)."

They said, "He has told the truth; he brought the meal to us." He said, "As you have been waiting for me, by Allah, I will not eat of it tonight." They said, "By Allah, we will not eat of it till you eat of it."

He said, "I have never seen a night like this night in evil. What is wrong with you? Why don't you accept your meals of hospitality from us?"

He said to me, "Bring your meal." I brought it to him, and he put his hand in it, saying, "In the name of Allah. The first (state of fury) was because of Satan." So Abu Bakr ate and so did his guests.

He said, "Haven't you served the supper to them?" She replied, "We presented the meal to him (or to them), but he (or they) refused to eat."

Abu Bakr became angry, rebuked me and invoked Allah to cause (my) ears to be cut and swore not to eat of it!" I hid myself, and he called me, "O ignorant (boy)!"

Abu Bakr's wife swore that she would not eat of it and so the guests or the guest swore that they would not eat of it till he ate of it.

Abu Bakr said, "All that happened was from Satan." So he asked for the meals and ate of it, and so did they.

Whenever they took a handful of the meal, the meal grew (increased) from underneath more than that mouthful. He said (to his wife), "O, sister of Bani Firas! What is this?" She said, "O, pleasure of my eyes! The meal is now more than it had been before we started eating"

So they ate of it and sent the rest of that meal to the Prophet. It is said that the Prophet (pbuh) also ate of it.

So, they spoke about the case of their (murdered) friend.

The Prophet (pbuh) said, "Will fifty of you take an oath whereby you will have the right to receive the blood money of your murdered man,"

They said, "O Allah's Messenger (pbuh)! The murder was a thing we did not witness." The Prophet (pbuh) said, "Then the Jews will release you from the oath, if fifty of them (the Jews) should take an oath to contradict your claim."

When I came out with my father, I said, "O father! It came to my mind that it was the date-palm tree." He said, "What prevented you from saying it?" Had you said it, it would have been more dearer to me than such-and-such a thing (fortune)." "O Allah! Without You we would not have been guided on the right path, neither would we have given in charity, nor would we have prayed.

So please forgive us what we have committed.

Let all of us be sacrificed for Your cause and when we meet our enemy, make our feet firm and bestow peace and calmness on us and if they (our enemy) will call us towards an unjust thing we will refuse.

The infidels have made a hue and cry to ask others help against us.

Allah's Messenger (pbuh) said, "Who is that driver (of the camels)?" They said, "He is 'Amir bin Al-Aqwa.'" He said, "May Allah bestow His mercy on him."

A man among the people said, Has Martyrdom been granted to him, O Allah's Prophet! Would that you let us enjoy his company longer."

We reached (the people of) Khaibar and besieged them till we were stricken with severe hunger but Allah helped the Muslims conquer Khaibar. In the evening of its conquest the people made many fires.

Allah's Messenger (pbuh) asked, "What are those fires? For what are you making fires?" They said, "For cooking meat." He asked, "What kind of meat?" They said, "Donkeys' meat." Allah's Messenger (pbuh) said, "Throw away the meat and break the cooking pots."

A man said, O Allah's Messenger (pbuh)! Shall we throw away the meat and wash the cooking pots?" He said, "You can do that too."

When the army files aligned in rows (for the battle), 'Amir's sword was a short one, and while attacking a Jew with it in order to hit him, the sharp edge of the sword turned back and hit 'Amir's knee and caused him to die.

When the Muslims returned (from the battle), Salama said, Allah's Messenger (pbuh) saw me pale and said, 'What is wrong with you?'" I said, "Let my parents be sacrificed for you! The people claim that all the deeds of Amir have been annulled."

The Prophet (pbuh) asked, "Who said so?" I replied, "So-and-so and so and- so and Usaid bin Al-Hudair Al-Ansari.

He said, "Whoever says so is telling a lie. Verily, 'Amir will have double reward."

While speaking the Prophet (pbuh) put two of his fingers together to indicate that, and added, Abu Talha covered his face with his garment and went towards her and threw his garment over her. Then the woman got up and Abu Talha prepared their she-camel (by tightening its saddle, etc.) and both of them (the Prophet (pbuh) and Safiya) mounted it. worshiping (our Lord) and celebrating His (our Lord's) praises".

The Kunyah of Al-Mushrik

Hadith # 6207

Narrated Usama bin Zaid:

That Allah's Messenger (pbuh) rode over a donkey covered with a Fadakiya (velvet sheet) and Usama was riding behind him. He was visiting Sa`d bin 'Ubada (who was sick) in the dwelling place of Bani Al-Harith bin Al-Khazraj and this incident happened before the battle of Badr.

They proceeded till they passed by a gathering in which `Abdullah bin Ubai bin Salul was present., and that was before `Abdullah bin Ubat embraced Islam. In that gathering there were Muslims, pagan idolators and Jews, and among the Muslims there was `Abdullah bin Rawaha. When a cloud of dust raised by (the movement of) the animal covered that gathering, `Abdullah bin Ubai covered his nose with his garment and said, "Do not cover us with dust."

Allah's Messenger (pbuh) greeted them, stopped, dismounted and invited them to Allah (i.e. to embrace Islam) and recited to them the Holy Qur'an. On that `Abdullah bin Ubai bin Salul said to him, "O man! There is nothing better than what you say, if it is the truth. So do not trouble us with it in our gatherings, but if somebody comes to you, you can preach to him."

On that `Abdullah bin Rawaha said "Yes, O Allah's Messenger (pbuh)! Call on us in our gathering, for we love that."

So, the Muslims, the pagans and the Jews started abusing one another till they were about to fight with one another. Allah's Messenger (pbuh) kept on quietening them till all of them became quiet, and then Allah's Messenger (pbuh) rode his animal and proceeded till he entered upon Sa`d bin 'Ubada.

Allah's Messenger (pbuh) said, "O Sa`d! Didn't you hear what Abu Habab said?" (meaning `Abdullah bin Unbar). "He said so-and-so." Sa`d bin Ubada said, "O Allah's Messenger (pbuh)! Let my father be sacrificed for you! Excuse and forgive him for, by Him Who revealed to you the Book, Allah sent the Truth which was revealed to you at the time when the people of this town had decided to crown him (`Abdullah bin Ubai) as their ruler. So when Allah had prevented that with the Truth He had given you, he was choked by that, and that caused him to behave in such an impolite manner which you had noticed."

So Allah's Messenger (pbuh) excused him. (It was the custom of) Allah's Messenger (pbuh) and his companions to excuse the pagans and the people of the scripture (Christians and Jews) as Allah ordered them, and they used to be patient when annoyed (by them). Allah said:

وَلَتَسْمَعَنَّ مِنَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْكِتَابَ مِنْ قِبَلِكُمْ

'You shall certainly hear much that will grieve you from those who received the Scripture before you...(3.186)

He also said:

وَدَّ كَثِيرٌ مِّنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ لَوْ يَرُدُّونَكُم مِّنْ بَعْدِ إِيمَانِكُمْ كُفَّارًا لَّو يَرُدُّونَكُم مِّنْ بَعْدِ
إِيمَانِكُمْ كُفَّارًا

'Many of the people of the scripture wish that if they could turn you away as disbelievers after you have believed. .... (2.109)

So, Allah's Messenger (pbuh) used to apply what Allah had ordered him by excusing them till he was allowed to fight against them.

When Allah's Messenger (pbuh) had fought the battle of Badr and Allah killed whomever He killed among the chiefs of the infidels and the nobles of Quraish, and Allah's Messenger (pbuh) and his companions had returned with victory and booty, bringing with them some of the chiefs of the infidels and the nobles of the Quraish as captives.

`Abdullah bin Ubai bin Salul and the pagan idolators who were with him, said, "This matter (Islam) has now brought out its face (triumphed), so give Allah's Messenger (pbuh) the pledge of allegiance (for embracing Islam.)".

Then they became Muslims.

Then another man came and asked permission to enter. The Prophet (pbuh) was sitting in a leaning posture, so he sat up and said, "Open the gate for him and give him the glad tidings of entering Paradise with a calamity which will befall him or which will take place." I went, and behold ! It was `Uthman.
